First Communion

Congratulations to all our P4 children who made their First Holy Communion on Saturday 14th May. We thank all the fantastic Parents, Teachers and Volunteers who helped to host the Reception in the Parish Hall for the children and their families. Many hundreds of teas and coffees were served and to those who kindly made tray bakes a huge thanks, they were all amazing.

USB Sticks/PE Bags.

For those who have children starting in nursery or P1 or for those parents who are looking to be organised for September, these are both available in the school office for £5 each.
